University of Sri Jayewardenepura

The University has a history of more than a century. In 1883, the Venerable Hikkaduwe Sri Sumangala Thero established the Vidyodaya Pirivena at Maligakanda. The Pirivena was given university status by the University Act No. 45 of 1958 and named Vidyodaya University of Ceylon. With this transformation, the University was geographically shifted from Maligakanda to its present location at Gangodawila, Nugegoda. Venerable Welivitiye Sri Soratha Maha Thero, who was the principal of the Vidyodaya Pirivena at that time, was appointed as the first Vice-Chancellor of the Vidyodaya University. The University itself was ceremonially opened on 16th February 1959.

At its inception, the university's student population was a mere 466. In 1978, the name was changed to the University of Sri Jayewardenepura (USJ) with the establishment of Sri Jayewardenepura as the administrative capital of Sri Lanka. Today, USJ is one of the largest universities in the nation, spreading over approximately 95 acres of land with an internal student population of about 12,000 and consisting of eleven faculties, namely Applied Sciences, Allied Health Sciences, Computing, Dental Science, Engineering, Graduate Studies, Humanities and Social Sciences, Management Studies and Commerce, Medical Sciences, Technology and Urban and Aquatic Resources.

In its illustrious history of over 65 years of academic excellence, we have spearheaded the development of management education in Sri Lanka through our programmes designed to meet the needs of Sri Lanka's economy and its business managers.

In all spheres, the University's work is closely linked to the industrial, commercial, and academic establishments locally, nationally, and internationally. In this expanding environment, quality is of paramount importance. We offer 12 degree programmes with more than 300 subjects. Our research activities are a strong indication of innovation and intellectual challenge that demonstrates our leadership in management education in the country. Therefore, we at FMSC offer learning heightened by cutting-edge research and innovation with a rare combination of practical and relevant knowledge and transferable skills essential for teamwork, communication, and leadership to build your career.

Evolution of the FMSC

FMSC is a dynamic, forward-looking, and modern Faculty. Irrespective of whether one intends to study at the undergraduate level (internal or external) or postgraduate level, at the FMSC, you will find intellectual challenge and stimulation in a highly competitive environment.

Management education at USJ also has a history of more than 60 years. The first programmes of study commenced in 1959/60 when two undergraduate degree programmes in Business Administration and Public Administration were introduced under the Department of Economics, Business and Public Administration. Subsequent major developments of the FMSC are given below in chronological order.

1959/60	The first two management programmes of management study: Business Administration and Public Administration, were commenced respectively under the Department of Economics, Business and Public Administration in the Faculty of Arts under the visionary leader of late Venerable Weliwitiye Sri Soratha Nayaka Thero.
1968	The department was reconstituted as the Department of Management Studies under the Faculty of Arts. A PhD programme and an MBA programme in Management were commenced under the Faculty of Arts.
1972	Under the reorganisation of the university system, the Department of Management Studies was elevated to Faculty status. The FMSC was established with two Departments, namely, the Department of Management Studies and the Department of Commerce.
1973	The B. Com (special) degree programme was commenced under the Department of Commerce. The degree programme in Estate Management and Valuation, established at the University of Colombo in 1972, was transferred to the University of Sri Jayewardenepura. A separate unit was established under the Department of Business Administration to offer this degree programme.
1980	The Department of Management Studies was split into two Departments, as the Department of Business Administration and the Department of Public Administration.
1986	The Department of Estate Management and Valuation was established.

1991	The Department of Accountancy and Financial Management was established.
1992	A degree programme in Accountancy was introduced under the Department of Accountancy and Financial Management as the first academic degree of such kind in the Sri Lankan university system.
1994	Introduced a degree programme in Marketing Management under the Marketing Unit, which functioned under the Department of Business Administration. The Department of Public Administration introduced a degree programme in Human Resource Management (HRM) functioning separately under the Human Resource Management Unit.
1995	M.Sc. programme in Management was commenced.
1996	The Marketing Unit was converted into the Department of Marketing Management.
1999	The HRM unit was converted into the Department of Human Resource Management.
2001	The year 2001 marked a turning point in the history of FMSC with the restructuring of its structure, moving away from the previous line department concept to the service department concept. This restructuring process led to the formation of 10 service departments where each identified with a specific functional area of business. Each service department is responsible for the degree programme offered in its area of expertise as well as for courses in its functional areas to all other degree programmes of FMSC. The Department of Information Technology and Decision Sciences was established. B.Sc. in Business Administration (Information Systems) (Special) degree programme was started under the Department of Information Technology and Decision Sciences. The Department of Accountancy and Financial Management was split into two, namely the Department of Accounting and the Department of Finance.
2002	A degree programme in Finance was commenced. The Department of Business Economics was established, and the B.Sc. in Business Administration (Business Economics) (Special) degree was introduced.
2007	The Department of Information Technology and Decision Sciences was split into two Departments, namely the Department of Information Technology and the Department of Decision Sciences.
2008	A degree programme in Operations and Technology Management (Special) was introduced under the Department of Decision Sciences.

	The degree programme offered by the Department of Information Technology was renamed as B.Sc. in Business Information Systems (Special) Degree.
2009	As the hub of management education in Sri Lanka, the FMSC started the Master of Business Administration programme in 2009 with six specialisation areas that cater to the purpose of moulding business leaders of the country. With the purpose of improving the language skills of future managers, a unit for Business Communication (BCU) was established.
2010	The Department of Entrepreneurship was established, and a degree in Entrepreneurship was introduced.
2013	Showing its academic orientation, the faculty started a PhD programme in Management with the intention of enhancing boundaries of knowledge creation and dissemination in management education. Legal Studies Unit (LSU) was established under the Department of Commerce to provide the service for the law courses offered in the degree programmes.
2014	Legal Studies Unit (LSU) was established under the Department of Commerce to service the law courses offered in the degree programmes. Obtained membership of the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB), which is a leading global accreditation institution for business schools.
2017	Legal Studies Unit (LSU) was made operative as a separate Unit directly under the FMSC on 6th November 2017.
2018	Secured an "A grade" for all 12-degree programmes at the Quality Assurance Programme Review conducted by the UGC. This is a unique achievement since the FMSC was the only faculty that obtained such outstanding results for all its programme submissions.
2019	The Extension Programme Unit (EPU) was established in the FMSC to offer Certificates, Diploma and Advanced Diploma programmes previously offered by respective departments of the faculty.
2021	The Postgraduate Centre of Business Studies (PCBS) was established to offer postgraduate management programs previously offered by the Faculty of Graduate Studies.

Academic and Student Support

Information Technology Resource Centre (ITRC)

ITRC is the main Information Technology Resources provider for the FMSC. It is equipped with seven computer labs, with a total number of approximately 600 client machines which are allocated for students to support their studies. All these computers are updated to meet the state-of-the-art technology requirements of future managers. ITRC operates from 8.00 a.m. to 8.00 p.m. on weekdays and from 8.00 a.m. to 6.00 p.m. during weekends. The ITRC serves approximately 6,000 undergraduate and postgraduate students. Furthermore, ITRC maintains a modern computer network with physical and virtual servers providing wireless Internet access within its environment. ITRC is staffed by over 10 qualified members with necessary exposure to Information and Communication Technologies and is headed by the coordinator, a senior lecturer from the Department of Information Technology.

The following are the key facilities provided by the ITRC.

- ITRC Lab-Computer System

This system provides a personal user account for each undergraduate of the FMSC. The username is the student's MC number, and all the students are informed about their initial password on their first day at ITRC Labs. At the very first login attempt, the students should change their initial password, and after that, if the students have forgotten their passwords, they have to use the ITRC Password Reset System.

Each student is given a separate network location for storing their private documents, which is named the "XXXXX-Home" (Z) drive. (Accessible only at ITRC Computer Labs).

- ITRC Password Reset System

This system facilitates resetting your forgotten password, which is used as computer logins at ITRC computer labs. The system is located in the office premises at ITRC.

For more information, please visit <https://itrc.sjp.ac.lk>

Learning Management System (LMS)

The LMS facilitates the sharing of learning resources and supports the distance learning mode. It is the centralized platform that disseminates study materials, announcements, and important news. It also enables assignment publishing and submission, and the conduct of graded and non-graded quizzes and assessments, including mid-semester examinations. Furthermore, during the distance learning mode, the LMS functions as a digital noticeboard, where all official notices are published in the Notices section.

Each course has a dedicated course page on the LMS, through which all course materials and related information will be made available to students. Students are required to enrol in their respective courses, and in some instances, course enrolment may be carried out by the lecturer. Once logged in, students will be able to view all courses relevant to the semester, provided that enrolment in the respective courses has been successfully completed.

Using the LMS:

- Using your preferred web browser, access the LMS via the following URL:

<http://lms.mgt.sjp.ac.lk>

- Enter your username and password as instructed below:

- Username: <your CPM Number> (e.g., 21000)

- Password: <your MC Number> (e.g., 77000)

- After your first login, you are strongly advised to change your password to one that is easy for you to remember.

- If you forget your password after changing it, you must use the “Lost Password?” option (link available on the login page) to reset your password.

Please note that once you enter the correct username (i.e., your CPM number), a new password will be sent to your email account, as mentioned above under the section

“Student Email and User Account.”

FMSC Examination Unit

The FMSC has established a dedicated Examination Unit to manage course unit registration, the scheduling and conduct of examinations, and the issuance of results for end-semester and final examinations of undergraduate students. To enhance efficiency and accessibility, the Unit has introduced a web-based examination management system, through which each student is provided with an individual user account for convenient access to their information.

It is mandatory for all undergraduate students of the Faculty to activate their examination system accounts upon receiving their index number. First-year students accessing the system for the first time may activate their accounts by visiting the URL: examfmisc.sjp.ac.lk.

Your username will be your index number, and your password will be your registration number (numerical digits only). Upon first login, you are required to change your password and ensure that the new password is securely remembered. If you forget your password, you may reset it using your registered email address.

Detailed instructions on this process are provided below.
